For golf, it was another disappointing speech on Sunday night. GolfRSA hasn't given up, and are waiting for clarification from the Minister of Sport. So, as soon as we do hear anything we will send out a broadcast message. We are bitterly disappointed, as no doubt are you, but let's try to remain positive and see our way through this.

If you are allowed to return to work from 1st June, we wish you well. Look after yourselves and stay healthy!

Time lapse video of the sunset at Zwartkop

Thanks to Adam, who is spending a lot of time driving around the golf course doing deliveries. Here's a stunning time-lapse video of a recent sunset.

Congratulations

Neil Smit has won a bottle of Dimple Scotch Whisky, which was kindly donated by our Chairman, Jannie Venter.

Neil's most embarrassing story:

My most embarrassing moment happened when I lost total control after a bad shot and threw my club into the air – somehow it went the wrong way and collided into my playing partners right arm cutting a permanent scar into his arm which I see every time we play – the most amazing part of this story is that he has continued playing with me – one could probably say he is thick skinned or crazy.

He must be a really good friend Neil!

We have one more bottle to give away

You need to do a bit of work for this one – the members with the best nett eclectic score on the front nine at Zwartkop will go into a draw. Eclectic means your best ever score on each hole – taking your handicap into account. Use the strokes as you would get them off the attached scorecard.

We are relying on your honesty here - in the words of Jack Nicklaus; “If there is one thing golf demands above all else, it is honesty.”

Birdies, eagles and albatrosses

in discussion with two of South Africa's top golfers who are now passionate birdwatchers

Giving Conservation Wings

Mark D. Anderson's work is supported by:

Tony Johnstone and Mark McNulty are two of the most successful golfers our region has ever produced. Tony, who now lives in Sunningdale in England, won six times on the European Tour and his most prestigious win was at the 1992 British PGA Championship. He won seventeen times on the Sunshine Tour. He is now a popular golf commentator. Mark, who now lives in KwaZulu-Natal, won 16 tournaments on the European Tour, was the Sunshine Tour Order of Merit winner 9 times, and won the Million Dollar Challenge at Sun City in 1986. He tied for second place in The Open Championship, one of the four majors.

Tony and Mark's passion is now birdwatching and bird photography. Tony regularly visits the Kruger National Park and other wild places during his golf-commentary travels, and Mark has become a top wildlife photographer and has taken superb images of the Crowned Eagles that nest near his home.

During this webinar, Mark Anderson, CEO of BirdLife South Africa, will be in discussion with Tony and Mark about their new love for birdies, eagles, albatrosses and other birds. Besides being a bird conservationist, Mark also knows a bit about golf. He previously played golf, albeit not very well. He also worked in Simon Hobday's pro shop at Wingate Park Country Club in Pretoria for several years when he was a student at the University of Pretoria.

Join Mark D. Anderson for the interview online at 19:00 (CAT) on 26 May 2020
