Winter maintenance is in full swing

The Matkovich Golf Course Maintenance team have been hard at work on the golf course. They started on the front nine – dropping the collar and runoff on the 1st, pruning trees, cleaning gardens, repairing pitch marks, clearing trees and branches from the river, and are waiting on a TLB to help us move some of the bigger trees. The TLB will also be used to shape the 4th, 8th and 18th fairways, in order to move water off them quickly, in the event of flooding.

Spotted...

Thanks to Debbi Lonmon for sending in this pic of a Burchills Coucal she spotted in the trees at the 5th green.

Singles Club...

The Singles Club was successfully held on 19 July, with 25 players enjoying a rare warm winter afternoon. The scoring was dramatically better than the first Singles Club, which was held in June after lockdown.

The best gross scores were:

Marco Anderson – 69

Brent Goddard – 70

Pieter Muller – 70

Ruan Jooste – 72

Jacques Venter – 72

The best net scores were:

Chris Delport – 68

Stefan Fourie – 69

Robert Oosthuizen – 71

Lourens Delport – 74

Francois Anderson – 75

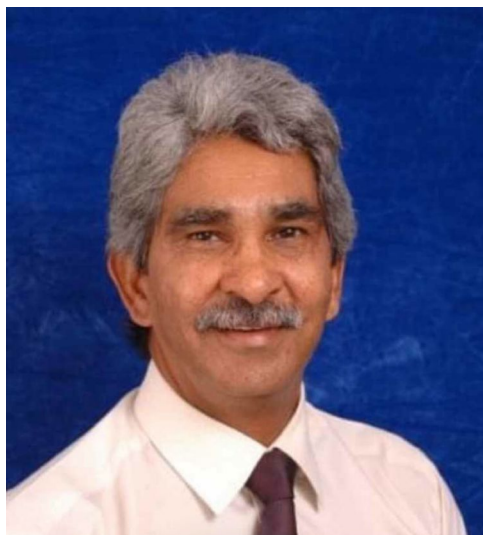

Well played everyone, and the next round will be played on Sunday, 16th August.

RIP Dr Dawjee...

Thank you to Sailesh Bhagattjee for this fitting obituary for Professor Salahuddien Mohamed Dawjee, who passed away during lockdown. Our thoughts continue to go out to his family. Click here to read more.
