

Better golf is just around the corner

We know the rough is damp, long and thick – and the sun has only just started to shine.

Soon we'll be able to hear the grass grow!

In the meantime, here are some tips to help you:

1. Keep your tee shot on the fairway

Okay, wishful thinking, but if you can then that's obviously the right answer to all your problems. If you don't keep your tee shot on the fairway, then do the following:

2. Watch carefully where the ball finishes so that you are able to find it in 3 minutes.

3. When you are lying in thick rough, move the ball back in your stance toward your right foot. This will help you to return the club to the ball at a far sharper angle and therefore the club will travel through less grass.

4. Take a club with more loft because moving it back in your stance will deloft the club.

Break it down to build it up

You're playing more shots from 90 metres in than anywhere else. We call this the 'scoring zone'. But do you know how many shots you're taking to get to this zone? The answer could help us identify problem areas. By breaking your game down into zones, we can build it up and lower your score.

Let's get started >

Get there faster

"A long, straight drive is going to help you get to the scoring zone a lot faster. And technology like Srixon's Rebound Frame is making it even easier to do that. The inward face flex at impact is countered by outward flex at the toe and heel, boosting energy transfer and ball speed."

Get to the scoring zone faster

We can get you into that scoring zone with fewer shots, more often.

Performance
that's more than skin deep

Yes, the thicker Spin Skin wrapped around Srixon's new Z-STAR gives you even more greenside spin, but its core also delivers the speed you need for longer tee shots.

This is something you really should experience for yourself. Come in and pick up a sleeve and let's improve your game.

A flying start
Three important questions for you

WHAT do you want to achieve? Could it be breaking 85 or adding 10 metres off the tee?

WHY do you want to achieve it? Is it feeling more satisfaction and less frustration? Is it looking forward to every round? Playing confidently with friends and family? Not just keeping up with the group, but impressing them too?

HOW do you plan on achieving it?

We're here to help you answer these questions and realise your golfing dreams.
