

What a weekend!

It started with Heritage Day, and great viewing on SuperSport of the Ryder Cup. What a golf course and unbelievable golf from the US team. It was a pity about the spectators who need to learn how to behave.

Then closer to home, it was the Spider Cup on Friday and Saturday afternoons. The Chairman's Team won – Chris Delpont gives you the low-down a little further down in the newsletter.

Then on Sunday, it was the Family Feud, the first event in the Kit Kat Group Celebration of Golf. Eighty-four players playing for Team Brian, Team Dale or Team Adam, and 36-holes of Foursomes. It's been a long time since I saw so many people having such a good day!

It was Brian's Team who got to lift the trophy, winning with 33½ points to Dale's 27 and Adam's 23½.

A massive thank-you to our sponsors, especially KWV, who provided free sparkling wine, wine, gin and port the whole day.

The Pro Am was played yesterday and was won by the Team of Justin Godfrey, Jordan Stoop, Stefan Fourie & Pieter Muller, on 92 points.

Cosmos Khumalo, Tiaan Geissler, Chad McCabe & Paul Marks tied for the Pro's Individual competition on 36 points.

Crizelda Terblanche had a hole-in-one on the 8th hole. Congrats! Crizelda used to be a Teaching Pro here at Zwartkop back in the day.

Once again, a huge thank-you to all the sponsors and participants.

Now for the BIG NEWS!

The Spider Cup and Family Feud were so successful and so much fun, that we have decided that next year's Spider Cup will have not only a Chairman's and Captain's Team, but also two Ladies and two Junior Teams participating.

In addition to that, the Family Feud will be played three times a year – this is because we can't stand Brian having the trophy for a whole year! What's great about this event is that it's simple. It's Matchplay, so you don't have to play out every shot. To win, you just have to hit the ball fewer times than your opponent!

This is just one note of many received after the Family Feud:

Dale, thank you so much for inviting me to come play in such a fantastic day. The hospitality and organising was top-class. Well done to you your family and your staff, and good luck for the week!
