GATE ACCESS: For your convenience, golf members have been cleared to use the left hand Residents Lane for access into the estate. We thank you for your co-operation during our Covid-affected operations.

Club Champs

Club Champs is next weekend and we are looking forward to hosting you.

The Men get to play for the Frank Edward Palmer Ball Trophy, which is a replica of the Open Championship Trophy.

It is named in honour of the Club's founder, Frank Edward Palmer Ball, who owned the ground on which the golf course was established. In fact he not only owned the ground, he commissioned Bob Grimsdell to design the original course, and in 1933 he sold it to Iscor, who owned the Club until it was bought by the Hayes family in 2001.

GRAND MATCH ON BLACKHEATH
Sunday, July 6, 2008

Mr Ball was responsible for the name Zwartkop, which he derived from the distinct 'koppies' or hills in the area, as well as the black-headed oriole bird, which forms part of our logo today.

Entries close on Wednesday, 11th May so make sure you get yours in!

Rules and details for Club Champs can be found on My Home Club, and you can click here to access the online entry form and the tournament information can be viewed here.
