Stars of the Week

Hein Wijburg and Vusi Mahlangu beat Joseph and Francois making it three wins in a row for the members!

Joseph has decided to take a little leave to recuperate (read get some secret practice in) before they get challenged to their next match!

That gives you time to find a partner and set a date for your own
CHALLENGE THE CLUB CAPTAIN & HEAD PROFESSIONAL. If you beat the Captain and Pro you will go into a draw (to be done in October) where you could win a special round of golf and lunch.

Joyful junior golf

Good sport

In victory and defeat, there's joy to be found in being a golfer. Joy to be found in being humble and gracious. Joy to be found in being a good sport.

Exemplary etiquette

Defeat is far more common than victory, so it's important that your child learns to lose in the right way. In our junior programme, your child will learn to acknowledge and appreciate an opponent's well-executed shot and to remain level-headed after a skillful shot of their own. Win, lose or draw, they'll remove their cap, shake hands with their playing partners and be glad to have golfed.

Likeable loser

Golf will teach your child to be gracious in defeat. Find out how:

Are you setting the right tone?

Walking along the fairway to your second with a clear sight of your ball is an extremely satisfying experience.

Do you often have to you search for your tee shot in the thick stuff during a round? Let's change that.

Find more fairways

Percentage tee shot

Put yourself in the fairway, even if it means a longer second.

Perfect tee shot

Hit the fairway with every metre of distance you're capable of.

"Whether you're playing from spot 1 or 2, the game is a lot more enjoyable from there."

Joy-destroyer tee shot

If you're struggling with a regular miss, the rest of the hole becomes a struggle. The good news is, we can help you fix this.

If you haven't broken 85 by now

Getting further down more fairways could be your breakthrough.
