Otway Hayes Senior Classic

Report by Chris Delport...

The Otway Hayes Senior Classic was held over the past weekend.

Senior golfers from all over South Africa entered, as it was the last tournament of the year to secure ranking points on the SA Senior Order of Merit.

I approached Dale in 2012 with the idea of hosting a SA Senior ranking tournament at Zwartkop and he immediately bought into the idea and came up with the name in honour of his late father. This year was the 10th anniversary of the tournament and to celebrate this milestone, each player received a Zwartkop coffee mug with the names of all past winners on it.

I wish to thank every course staff member for their tireless effort in producing a course that was not only playable, but in very good condition considering the flood the weekend before.

We hosted a full field of 78 of the top senior golfers in SA. After day one, it was still everyone's tournament with no less than 17 players within 3 shots of the lead. Dawid Lourens, Mark Matthews and Douglas McCabe shot 72, closely followed by our own Robin Ashby, Leon Scheepers, Barry Sundelson, Derik Piek and Alfred Koopman on 73.

Day 2 the course was set up a bit longer and with the pins tucked away, scoring was very tough. After a close affair, Dawid Lourens from North West came up trumps with scores of 72-72 (144), with no less than 4 players on 147. Second place then went to Greg Gleeson from Central Gauteng on a c/o from Craig Kamps, Evan McKenzie, and Blaine Mancner.

The best Zwartkop CC players in the Senior section was Robin Ashby in 19th place on 154, and in the Super Senior section Chris Delpport and William Skinner in 5th place on 157.

We received the following message from Craig Kamps, who campaigned for 17 years on the Asian Tour as a professional golfer and now represents both Central Gauteng and the SA team:

"Morning Chris. Thanks for another great event where the players always come first, you fed us well, amazing that we could play with all the food provided. I can clearly see a lot of effort that went into the restoration of the course in only a few days, a job well done!!"

As mentioned earlier, a huge thanks must go to the course staff, to Dale for the generous prizes and trophies to the winners of the Senior and Super Senior division and runners-up, to the golf shop staff, Brian Hayes for the starting, Linda, Ina and Neil and all the catering staff, Francois Anderson and Dale Michler (who tirelessly worked on his birthday on Sunday), and last but definitely not least Sharon Bruyns for all her hard work and assistance in making this one of THE events on the Senior calendar.
