From the Club

Congrats Nishalin & Pia

Our huge congratulations to Golf Management Campus student Nishalin Naidoo who has been selected to the GNGU Team for the Golf RSA Challenge Inter-Provincial taking place at Mooi Nooi from 8th to 11th May.

Pia Daya took part in the Cobra Puma CCGU Ladies Open at Royal JHB & Kensington GC this weekend. She finished first in the Junior Bronze Division and runner-up overall in the Bronze Division on a count out. She had 59 points.

Great to see some new faces at the Club this weekend

We had a trial run for cyclists, walkers and joggers riding, running and walking on our property this weekend. We're glad that the weather held out for them and by all accounts they had a ball.

Join the cyclists for a 07h00 Saturday ride – R65 includes a bike wash.

Diarise to join us at these fun events in April

Dog Walk – Saturday, 15th April @ 08h00

Bring your pooch down for a social walk on the closed nine (dogs will need to be on lead). Meet us behind the hedge at the large eucalyptus tree. For just R45 you will be able to spoil yourself with a Puppaccino for your pup and a Cappuccino for yourself after the walk. Of course you're welcome to stay for breakfast and can order additional puppaccino's and cappuccino's as needed....

Next up in our Challenge Series is the Duca Shoet-Out!

Diarise Wednesday, 19th April for this fun knock-out event. Spots are limited so enter soon.

Anyone is welcome to take part. We tee off in 10-ball's at 15h00 and play medal net. At the end of each hole the golfer with the highest score falls out. At the end of nine holes the remaining players in each team go into a shoet-out to win a pair of Duca del Cosma shoes.

Autumn Country Festival – Saturday, 22nd April

We're thinking of a relaxing autumn afternoon from 12h30. Balmy weather, country music, great food and drinks – what more could you ask for? Diarise it!
