And we have lift off!

Work on the TopTrack Range powered by Trackman has begun!

So what is Trackman?

On Monday we told you that the work on the new TopTrack Range @ Zwartkop powered by Trackman is getting underway.

So what is Trackman? TrackMan is a Danish company, founded in 2003 and is a golf ball tracking solution. Their radar technology precisely measures each shot, giving instant feedback on ball data including ball speed, carry and total distance, launch angle, launch direction, and more.

Information is then displayed on the TV screens at each range bay so it is very interactive. TrackMan Range offers fun games, entertainment, detailed shot analysis, course play, and challenges for all levels of golfer, from beginner through to serious players.

You can check out their website for more details here:

From sometime in September members and visitors will be able to access our Trackman Range which we are certain will revolutionise your warm-up, practice, coaching, and social experience at Zwartkop.

If you want to engage with the system properly you should download the Trackman app and set up a profile for yourself. That will allow you to record all your shot data and stats so that you can review it all later. We will talk you through this in detail later.

You can download the App here:

The alignment aides are amazing. Remember, most of the shots you play are on or around the greens, so putting is of paramount importance.

Fitting you for distance

Defy gravity

Play a driver with a CG that'll take your game further!

Longer drives come from a penetrating ball flight. And to achieve this ball flight we need to make sure that the driver you're playing has a center of gravity (CG) location that suits your swing. By working with CG we can help you defy gravity and fly further!

If your ball flight is quite flat, you're probably losing carry and could benefit from a driver with a deeper and lower CG to increase dynamic loft.

If your drives are ballooning, we might look at a CG that's shallower and/or higher to bring down dynamic loft.

But there's more to it than launch angle and dynamic loft; we'll also need to consider your spin rates.

The only way for us to know exactly what driver CG is right for you is to determine your current spin rate and launch angle, and whether those numbers line up with your swing and ball speeds. We'll do this and more during a driver fitting.

Watch your game take flight

Play the right driver and send more of your drives soaring down the fairway!

Sepp was certainly striping it

After a slow start on Thursday, Srixon staffer Sepp Straka stepped up his game at the John Deere Classic. With rounds of 63, 65 and 62, he managed to beat out the rest of the field by two shots on 21-under par.

Clearly his Srixon ZX7 Mk II Irons and Cleveland RTX 6 ZipCore Wedges were on fire, hitting 85% of greens in regulation and making 26 birdies over the four days!

Tricky lies

Can Srixon's help you slope bag

Transform your journey from tee to green with the Srixon's lineup of woods, Fairways are full of sloping lies. They're an additional challenge you've got to deal with, and we're going to help you do just that.

Ball below your feet

This one's probably the toughest sloped lie for most golfers. Catching the ball thin is the tendency here.

Ball above your feet

This lie brings the ball closer to you. The loft on the club causes the club face to aim left from these lies so make sure you take your aim carefully, especially with your more lofted clubs.

No more sliding scores

Let's create more scoring chances for you by improving your impact from sloped lies.

Let's hit the slopes
