TopTrack powered by Trackman has opened in test phase

It's been a fun few days introducing you to the TopTrack Range powered by Trackman

As mentioned last week, this is a test phase and we still have loads of finishes to get done but still, it is a wonderful atmosphere and it is great fun to use, so come and give it a try. Booking are done through the golf shop on (012)654-1144.

The first batch of virtual courses have been loaded onto the system for you to play and they are:

- Marco Simone in Italy (next week's Ryder Cup venue)

Play the course and you could win a magnum of Roodeberg wine, a Zwartkop shirt and a dozen Srixon balls.

- Check out the flyover video here:

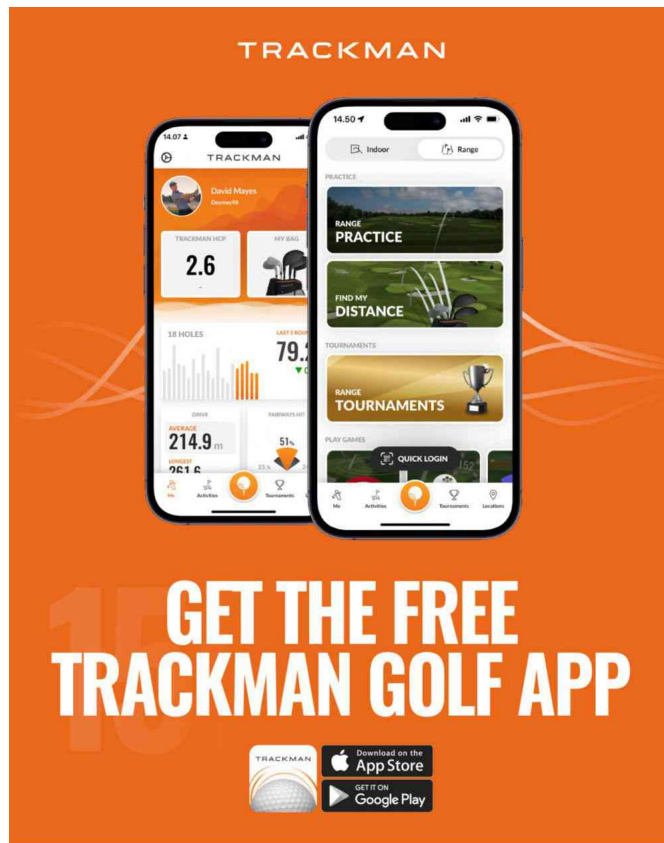

- Wentworth in the UK (last week's PGA Championship venue)
- Bellerive in Missouri, USA
- Casa da Campo's "Teeth of the Dog" in the Dominican Republic
- Adare Manor in Ireland
- Crans sur Sierre in Switzerland
- Jack Nicklaus' Muirfield Village in Ohio
- Royal Birkdale, an Open Championship venue, in England
- Royal Portrush, an Open Championship venue, in Northern Ireland
- Royal Troon, an Open Championship venue, in Scotland
- Real Club Valderama in Spain
- Senoja Valley in California – a fun Par 3 course for you to practice your short game

Remember the test phase is really important so that we can gather as much data as possible over this time to ensure the system is correctly calibrated.

Download the App and set up a profile for yourself to maximise your use of the range and can keep all your data and stats for future reference

Join our Heritage Weekend Challenge

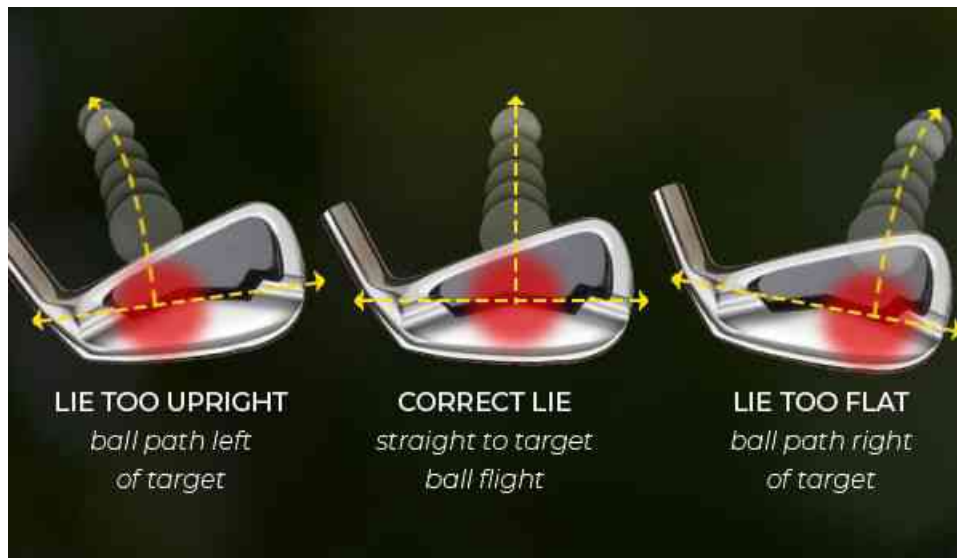

This weekend is Heritage Day. What are your plans? If you are going away for the weekend, don't forget to pack your golf bag and a shirt adorned with our club's logo - there's no better way to celebrate being South African than playing a round of golf at one of our country's beautiful golf courses.

Let's celebrate our love for our club, our country, and the game in style!

Where are you playing this weekend?

Fitting by the numbers

Where sweeter strikes lie

Recently we spoke about the importance of squaring the club face at impact to hit more accurate irons shots. Today we're focusing on something that can prevent you from squaring the face even if your swing is perfect and your shafts are correctly fitted for you: lie angle.

Making it easier to hit your target

Struggling with a pull? This may not mean you've made a bad swing but rather that your clubs' lie angles are too upright for you. Perhaps it's a push that plagues your game? A lie angle that's too flat could be the cause.

By fitting you for the correct lie angles, you'll find it a lot easier to control your clubhead through impact and keep the face square.

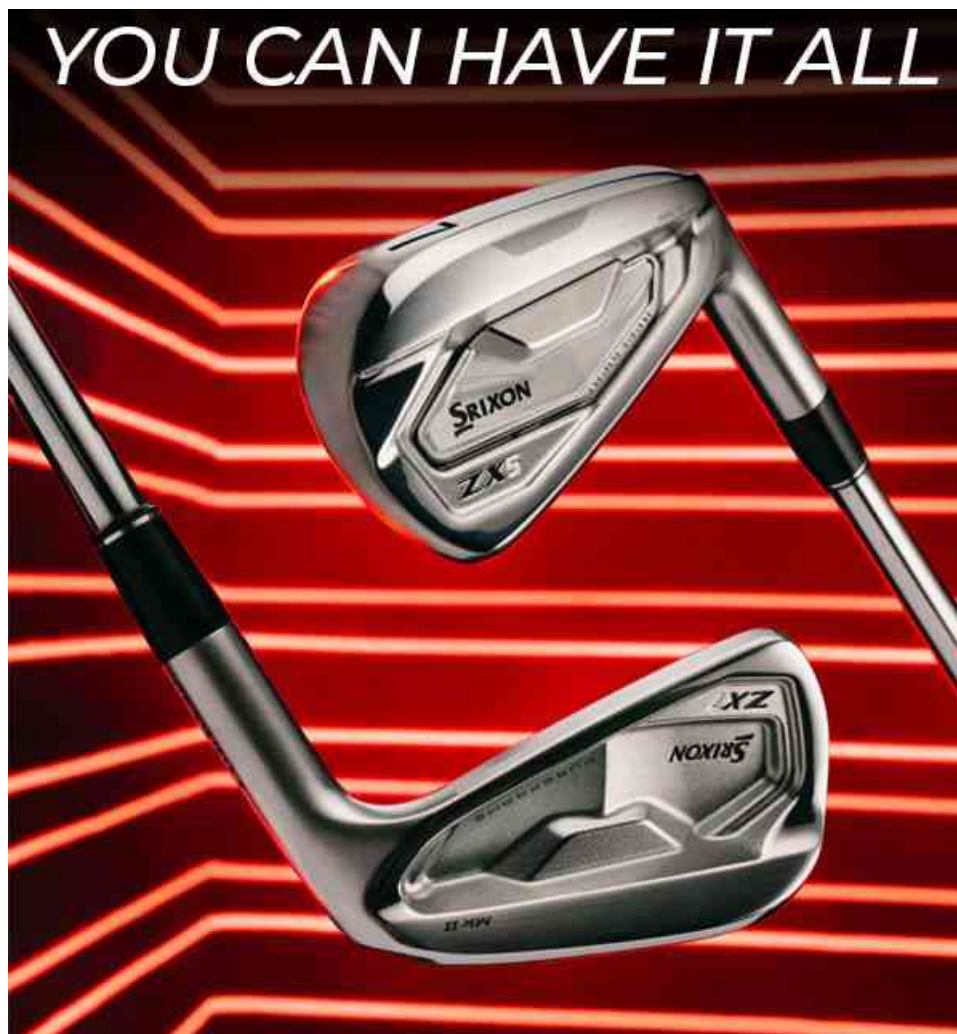

A positive change of just one degree alters shot direction by 4 metres!

Unlock your true potential

With the right iron lie angles you'll unlock your true approach play accuracy!

It's possible to enjoy both forgiveness and workability in a single iron set with the progressive design of the Srixon ZX Mk II Irons.

Track to improve

Green-light your improvement

Whatever happens on the green, if you've reached that green in regulation, you're improving your odds of scoring (and it feels fantastic to see your ball land and stick from over 100 metres out). We're going to help you experience that more often.

Track your tendencies and you'll know how to improve

Track your tendencies

How many greens do you hit each round? Is your tendency to miss them short, long, left or right?

Over the next three rounds, track how many greens you hit and when you miss, the nature and location of those misses. Anything less than four greens in regulation and you're placing too much stress on your short game.

Once we better understand your tendencies we can make swing adjustments that have the highest impact on your game.
