From the Club

We trust you all had a very Happy Heritage Day on Sunday!

South Africans are amazing people. We have a great sense of humour, we have pride and passion, a huge variety of cultures, religions and of course, resilience. Added to that we have a beautiful country. Let's hope that we are able to work together as a nation to restore our country to the status that it deserves.

Unfortunately, our rugby team were not successful on Saturday night but we have another game this coming weekend and we are sure we can find a kicker by then. Social media certainly seemed to have more than one suggestion...

Celebrating our heritage...

Family Feud

Talking of pride, our thanks to everyone that played in yesterday's windy Family Feud. It was once again very close between Team Brian and Team Dale, with Team Dale's just keeping their noses in front.

It's lovely to see how much fun people have playing matchplay – just winning holes and not counting your scores makes for a fun day.

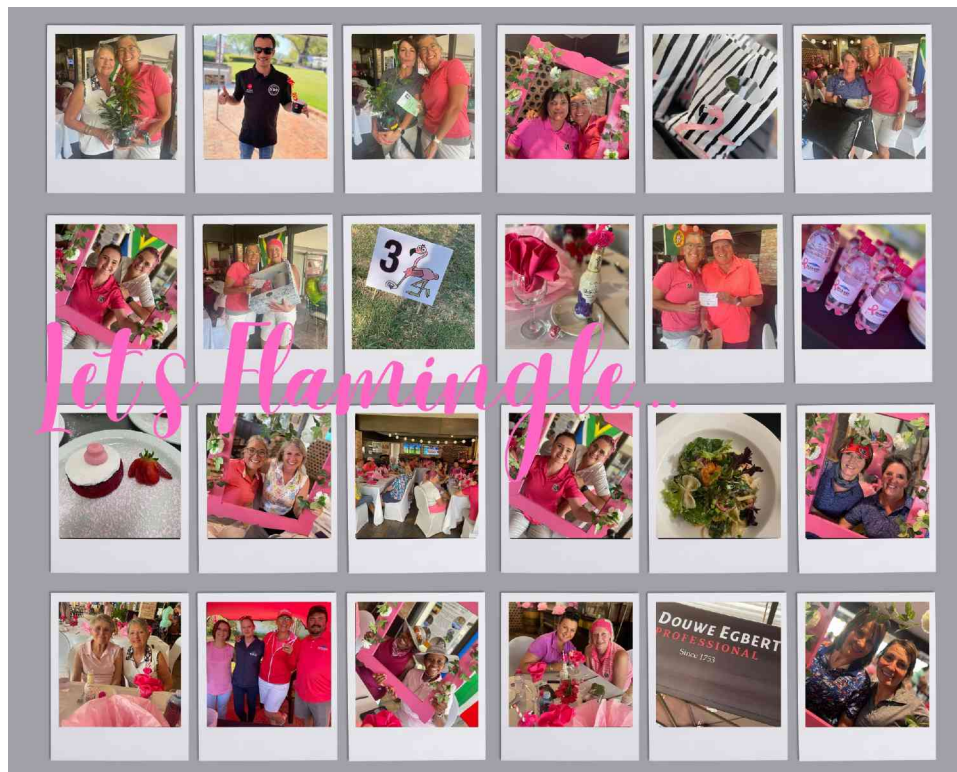

Let's Flamingle Ladies Rosebowl

Our ladies held their annual Rosebowl on Thursday and a huge thank-you to Ina Rouse and Karin Graaff for putting on the most fantastic event.

They put a huge amount of work into it all, from the goodie bags, to the hole sponsors; to the unbelievable meal (thank you Linda and team) and the prizes.

We must thank all those involved - The Bed Shop (Adrian Brian); Mzanzi Tents (Walter Fulzs); Lots of Pots Centurion; Douw Egberts Coffee (David Georgiades); Groenkloof Spar (Ronnie Els); Golfers Club Centurion; Flare Beverages (ZidahLee Burger); Callaway (Jacques Venter); Katinka Pottery (Karin Graaff); M2 Design; Wierdabrug Veterinary Clinic (Janine Hayes); Zwartkop Hair Salon (Nadine Le Roux) and Sharon Bruyns.

We starting to count down to the opening of the TopTrack powered by Trackman Range
